Love Unnamed

Unbearable pain fills my heart,
longing to be loved,
Haunts me in the silent hours.

The darkness of my sorrows whispers: It is better to remain unseen.

Unrequited love, yet achingly beautiful.

Through distant glances shaded from gaze and myth, I savoured fleeting moments of secret happiness.

But everything shattered with a single Question.
Unbelievable, yet my inner child had yearned for it. That question became the quiet end of hope.

And so it is always said
Love remains most beautiful
When it is silent,
Unnoticed,
and unnamed.
